

Parent Declaration of Student Dependency

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 prohibits Utah State University from releasing certain personally identifiable information from a student’s record to a third party (e.g. parent, spouse, etc.) without the student’s explicit written consent. There are two circumstances, however, under which Utah State University may disclose personally identifiable information to others: (1) a delegate who has been authorized to act on behalf of the student at USU, or (2) by completing this form and verifying that the parent claimed the student on their most recent tax return.

DO NOT SIGN this form until you are in the presence of an appropriate USU staff member or Notary Public. Appropriate USU staff members are in the following offices: Registrar’s Office, Financial Aid Office, or the Office of Retention and First-Year Experience.

STUDENT NAME: _____ Student ID (A#) _____

I certify that the student listed above is currently dependent on me and has been claimed by me (as a parent or guardian) for a federal tax exemption for the _____ tax year (most recent tax year).

Upon approval of this form, the Office of the Registrar at Utah State University (or other university officials, such as an academic advisor) may disclose personally identifiable information concerning the student’s educational record to the individual(s) listed below. Releasable information includes, but is not limited to, the following: eligibility to register, coursework completed in prior terms, transcript and grades, academic standing, credit hours, class schedule, balance due, and financial aid information.

I understand that the individuals listed below who request information in person are REQUIRED to provide picture ID. By indicating an email address below, the Registrar’s Office, an academic advisor, or other university officials may correspond via email.

Utah State University may release student information to the following parent/guardian(s):
